FUNdamental

New ideas in the English Department made learning fun this year. In the American Literature classes, students read many interesting novels. In Miss Elizabeth Spaulding's American Literature class the students acted out a part from the novel Of Mice and Men. This helped the other students get a better picture of what they were reading.

Learning to outline and writing research papers were the highlights of the college composition classes. This course helped seniors prepare for college.

Mr. Rol Crane also used a computer once again to help the students prepare for the ACT and SAT college entrance exams this year. Miss Elizabeth Spaulding's class did grammar review units to help them prepare for the ACT.

The Math program was designed for the highly motivated student who expected to continue in math or related fields in college; the future engineer, mathematician, or scientist.

A variety of classes made the math department, including general math, several different algebra classes, advanced courses: honors pre-calculus, and calculus, and computer programming classes. These courses were accelerated so that the mathematics were covered prior to the application in science.

Business education students could develop a salable skill in preparation for entry into a business occupation. With rapidly growing microcomputer use in business and industry, students were convinced to prepare themselves with a good business background to enter the job market or college. Work experience in a cooperative, working-learning situation was a good advantage for the business student.

Multi-talented artists . . .

Along with the regular art classes such as Art I, Art II, drawing and silkscreen, studio art is a major part of Walt Nagel's art department. Many projects were completed through the year in studio art, such as self portraits, monocromatic drawings and paintings and prospective drawings.

Perhaps the most creative part of the year was designing and painting of a mural on the concession stand wall, (located on our football field). Matt Knapp, a new senior, designed the winning wall painting. Students from the two studio art classes helped paint the concession stand, finishing it just in time for the first football game.

Other highlights of the art department included, painting windows at Christmas time and painting faces for the Sherwood fun fair in the springtime. Awards were given out during the National Scholastic art exhibit held at Hampton Square Mall in Essexville.

Several activities such as the Children's Christmas Party and the Thanksgiving meal took place inside and outside the Home Economics Department this year under the direction of Mrs. Mary Douglas.

Students gained knowledge for their future ranging from sewing a simple stitch to preparing a formal Thanksgiving meal.

The Child Development class took a trip to Saginaw General Hospital for a tour of the Maternity Ward to observe the birthing wing of the hospital.

The combined classes of Family Living and Foods and Nutrition took a trip to Frankenmuth and received a tour of Zehnder's restaurant's kitchen to see how the food is prepared and served in the restaurant business.

The highlight of the year was the Children's Christmas Party, where Brett Maddox played Santa to a delighted group of youngsters.

Science department survives changes

Several changes took place in the Science Department this year. The biggest change was Mr. Kim Kolbe's leaving his teaching job to take over the assistant principal's job left by Mr. Russ Spaulding. The void Mr. Kolbe left in the Science department was filled by Mrs. Marie Gettings.

Another major change was home economics teacher Mrs. Mary Douglas teaching chemistry.

While the staff experienced several changes, no major changes occured in the curriculum. Many fine classes such as Physics or Biology II Advanced Placement continued to be offered. The high point of the advanced placement course once again was the disecting of pigs.

Student Government takes action

Student Government at Eisenhower is headed by an organization called the Forum. Five members were elected from each class in early September, so that they could operate the class council elections. Forum sponsored "Spook and Spirit Day". This day was filled with many activities in the Student Center. There were apple bobbing, pie throwing contest, and a pizza auction. Prizes were given to Kathy Bourcier for cutest costume, Joey Douglas for funniest, Dave Bry, Ross Bitterling, Michelle Burden for the scariest and Marc Rummler, Dave Halstead, and Cory Ruppel for the best group costume. The seniors received the most participation award for dressing in unity as street gang members.

Forum initiated a new project for 1985-86. A constitution for all of the class officers and council members was organized. This constitution would permit classes to be better organized and it informed officers of their responsibilities and duties.

On November 17th, the Forum went into competition with MacArthur High School on the Annual Blood Drive. The Forum kept busy through the holiday season with the class councils by decorating the areas. The organizations final event was the Commander Court elections and dance in February.

The Forum's advisor was Mr. Jim Rummler, officers were Kelly O'Connor—president; Beth Cox—vice-president; Kala Karu—secretary; Carolyn Mitchell—treasurer. The organization met every Monday 5th hr. to organize their projects. Chairmen were picked for certain committees.

To top the year off Forum went to Higgins Lake for a relaxing trip. They reviewed what they accomplished over the school year. And seniors received their special gifts.

When you think of National Honor Society, you might think of the high grade point average you must obtain; but to be on this society a student must also have community involvement, athletic ability, or scholastic involvement.

To kick off the 85-86 school year, The National Honor Society held a Halloween party for the Township area children from preschool to third grade. They also took stockings to St. Mary's Hospital during the Christmas season. Money for these two events was raised through candy sales.

Mrs. Jane Wreggelsworth and Mrs. Joan Ostrowski were the two advisers, with Elaine Bermudez as president, Nathan Blecke as vice president, Jennifer Hinkston as secretary, and Linda Jahnke as treasurer.

A hot August day, while some students were relaxing by the pool, off in the distance . . . a low rumble of The Marching Commanders practicing their drills floated into their ears, a sure sign of summer coming to an end.

Under the direction of Mr. Michael Vierow and drum major Phil Yien, senior, the band was invited to participate in many activities; Central Michigan University's band day, The Christmas Pride Parade, Saginaw Valley Community College's halftime performance, and they also brought in Santa Claus at Green Acres Plaza. Along with the special activities, there was also the Annual Christmas and spring concerts.

Under the direction of guard sergeant, senior, Corieen Jones the color guard performed many entertaining routines to such songs as "Neutron Dance", "Sussudio", and "All She Wants To Do Is Dance".

The band took off their marching uniforms to bring a little excitement to the school assemblies and basketball games by playing the fight song and other upbeat tunes.

Semester break brought more changes as the Marching Commanders transformed into the Eisenhower Concert band. They rounded off the busy year with the spring concert and commencement.

The Music Boosters along with the music students parents were busy this year working in the concession stands for the football and basketball games.

In sync with the latest physical fitness craze, the Eisenhower Junior Varsity cheerleading squad showed their dedication by joining a local health club and working out to provide pep and spirit at football, soccer, and basketball games. While both the Junior Varsity and Varsity squads attended cheerleading camp at Albion College, the Junior Varsity squad received two-Excellents, one-Superior, and one-Outstanding awards.

The daily practices including weekends, paid off for Eisenhower's Varsity Cheerleading squad. The squad acquired two-first places, three-second places and was placed in the top four squads at summer camp. They also were named Top Squad in the mounting competition and brought home a spirit stick.

Aiding in paying their way to camp and providing the Varsity squad with new uniforms, the Freshman, Junior Varsity and Varsity squads had many fundraisers, such as carwashes, M&M candy sales, working bingo, and Christmas ornament and candle sales.

Unity was expressed as all three squads cheered together at the 1985 Homecoming game against Buena Vista. They also had a Halloween party to bring their squads closer together, where they dressed up and had a costume competition. Bobbing for apples was also included in the fun.

To start off the new school year, Drama Club planned their first play. The group decided to present the three act play entitled, "The Philadelphia Story." Tryouts were held and the cast was chosen. Long practices began in October and continued up until the night before the play. They were held every day after school except for Fridays. Dress rehearsals were held the Sunday and Thursday before opening night. The play premiered on Friday, November 8, with a second performance on November 9. All of the scenery was constructed by Drama Club members.

Meetings for the club were held every Friday at 7:40 AM in the IKE theater.

Membership was raised this year to 70 members. Taking positions of club officers were Elaine Bermudez, President; Marianne Besaw, Vice President; and Teri Morton, Secretary/Treasurer. Miss Ruth Anne Sowle served as the Drama Club advisor once again for her fifteenth and final year. She has retired as director of productions.

Since 1971, the Eisenhower Drama Club has been fortunate to have Miss Ruth Anne Sowle as adviser of the organization as well as director of it's almost 40 major productions. This year, Miss Sowle retired as director, although she hoped to continue to serve as the Club's adviser.

Among Miss Sowle's favorite productions were: Flowers for Algernon, My Three Angels, Music Man, Pillow Talk, The Miracle Worker, The Curious Savage, and Oliver, although she said, "It's hard to say. I just enjoyed them all." Technically, the hardest play was The Miracle Worker while overall, the most challenging was Flowers for Algernon.

Miss Sowle is proud of the fact that the club has had "excellent backing from the Administration for all of our productions," although she said, "No monies were given to us from the school." The group is self-supporting fund-wise. They have, however, had help from other departments such as, the industrial art classes and publications, "just to name a few." All technical aspects, such as light, sound and stage construction, were assumed by Ike students and faculty, a rarity in high school productions.

Miss Sowle wished to express to all actors, actresses, technical workers and stage managers, "my kids" as she chose to call them, a special thanks for all the hard work and dedication in a private joke attesting to warmth and love, "Take an Umbrella."

"I've never experienced anything like it before," quoted from Outdoors Club President Julie Zolinski. The November 8-10 weekend was quite different from any ordinary weekend in the woods. Running out of shoes and resorting to zip lock baggies for shoes, canoeing 26 miles over eight hours down the Manistee River through a blizzard and having all your food frozen were only a few ways of roughing it that weekend.

The group made more plans even after their experience north. They worked bingos during the school year to raise money for their summer journey. The members went white water rafting in West Virginia.

This year's officers included Julie Zolinski, president; Kristen Snyder, vice-president; Molly Ward, secretary; Tricia Bamberger, treasurer. The organization's adviser was Mr. Rol Crane.

At the team's first meet held at Essexville Garber, Michelline Gallagher took second place for her sales pitch on "Swipe", while Tricia Chuo captured sixth place in her dramatic interpretation of "The Yellow Wallpaper". The team's next meet was held in Gaylord, where they demonstrated even more talent, which helped them to have a very successful year. Ike captured fourth place overall while Soni Mithani helped the team with her first place win for her informative reading on "Money". Also, Nathan Blacke and Troy Zestos took first place for a dramatic duo called "Mass Appeal". Through a successful season the Forensics team stuck together to make it a fun and eventful year.

The year 1985 brought man changes to the Eisenhower community one of which was the addition of an or ganization called Eisenhower S.A.D.D (Eisenhower Students Against Drivin Drunk). The purpose of this organiza tion was to warn students of th dangers of driving while under the in fluence of alcohol. Students achieve this goal by conducting Awarenes Days each month, distributing buttons bumper stickers, and Student-Paren Contracts, and becoming involved i community-wide programs.

During the summer, S.A.D.D members teamed up with members o MacArthur S.A.D.D. and the Saginaw Township Families in Action to presen two dances. According to Officer Rob ert Sherman, these dances gave stu dents "a place to go where they wouldn't have to deal with the kind o peer pressure that often leads them t drink".

As a special "something extra" many S.A.D.D. members became in volved in other community services The group celebrated Halloween by visiting Maccabbee Gardens Center fo the Elderly.

Weeks of preparation were necessary to assemble S.A.D.D.'s entry in the Saginaw Pride Parade. The entry was a float entitled "I'll be home for Christ mas".

National S.A.D.D. Recognition Day took place in March. Ten students were honored for their hard work and dedi cation. They were Betty Arn, Kristine Becker, Marianne Besaw, Stacy Bierlein, Kathy Bourcier, April Burridge, Kathy Dunbar, Kris Lord, and Soni Mithani.

S.A.D.D.'s main event of the year was S.A.D.D. Awareness Week. The week began with an alcohol awareness pre sentation to the entire student body and was concluded with a dance held in honor of the Eisenhower and MacAr thur S.A.D.D. programs by the Saginaw Township Families in Action.

Project Graduation '86 was a commu nity-wide awareness campaign which S.A.D.D. became involved in. The purpose of the program was to mini mize the drunk driving problem during the prom and graduation season.

Through such programs the new or ganization was able to make an impact on the student body. S.A.D.D. officers were Stacy Bierlein; President, Ann Luplow; Vice president, and Kathy Bourcier; Secretary/Treasurer. Commit tee Chairmen were Marianne Besaw, Missy Cross, Kathy Dunbar, Kris Lord, and Soni Mithani.

Homecoming '85 remains "forever in our hearts"

Spirit and enthusiasm were evident throughout Homecoming Week which took place on Monday, October 7 through Saturday, October 12.

Homecoming festivities began with Pep Club's Homecoming Festival on Monday during the lunch hours. Festival events included sac races, lip-sync contests, pie eating contests, and a water balloon toss.

Tuesday was highlighted by the Guys Legs Contest which Doug Bishop and John Lennard won by popular vote.

Dimmed lights and soft music set a more serious mood on Wednesday for the Homecoming Assembly where the Homecoming Court members and their escorts were formally presented. Court members had been elected a month earlier by the Juniors and Seniors. Members were; Lisa Blanchet, Beth Cox, Melanie Erway, Leslie Lowell, Jenny Larsen, Ann Luplow, Kelly O'Connor, Andrea Reis, and Patty Rossiter.

Ballots were cast Thursday as the student body was asked to choose the Homecoming Queen.

The Court was presented once again at halftime of Friday night's football game, this time escorted by their fathers. Everyone looked on in awe as Ann Luplow was crowned 1985 Homecoming Queen. To top off the evening, Eisenhower defeated Buena Vista 21-13.

Corsages were ordered, tickets were purchased, and dinner reservations were made as everyone prepared for Saturday's big event.

Dedicated Pep Club members spent Saturday morning enhancing the student center with mauve, navy blue, and silver decorations, which provided the perfect setting for the Homecoming Dance, "Forever". Couples danced from 9:00 p.m. until 1:00 a.m. to the music of Lighting II. The dance brought a happy ending to a memorable week as Homecoming '85 will remain "forever in our hearts".

15th Introspectus published

Publishing the fifteenth edition of Introspectus and having it debut on time were not easy tasks for staff members. A "green" staff of 33 members, a cantankerous computer, and the lack of a photographic staff kept deadlines in a nebulous position.

The strong graphics work of artists Richard Verdoni, Laurie Russel, Beth McMahon, and Jennifer Lundahl added dimensions to the pages and division. Richard also designed the cover for the 1986 yearbook.

Selling $4,000 in advertising to defray costs of the $16,000 production was the easiest part of this year's production. Junior Julie Zolinski sold $1,000 in advertising on her own.

Editor-in-chief Marianne Besaw and associate editors Stacy Bierlein and Lisa Luplow completed the special color opening. Senior editors Diane Schuette and Jennifer Hinkston found the Class of 1986 to be the smallest graduating class yet in Eisenhower history.

Adviser to the yearbook for 12 of its 15 year history, Elizabeth Spaulding took a leave of absence from the high stressed world of high school yearbooking to pursue other aspects of journalism and to devote more time to her English classes at Eisenhower.

The WORD is in, pass it on

All Photos by Michael Willmar

In January of 1986, the newspaper staff began to publish the 15th edition of The Word. Against the odds of a publishing budget of $0.00, a small, inexperienced staff, and the loss of an English credit for enrollment in the course, the staff members managed to publish 7 eight paged newspaper, and a 20 paged anniversary edition.

Staff members earned over $5,000 to publish the magazine tabloid by selling advertising, portrait packets, and helium filled balloons. Copy was due weekly and an emphasis was placed on writing the magazine feature. Popular features of The Word with the Eisenhower student body were "Encounter", a series of small personal articles about Ike students, "Lupe's Scoops" a humorous look at life at Ike, by Ann Luplow, and the cartoons of staff artist Greg Ostrom.

Co-editors of the paper were Ann Luplow and Mary Byrne. Dan Peck served as editorial editor and Shelly Wollf as copy editor.

Elizabeth Spaulding was adviser to the publication. This was her 13th year as adviser in the 15 year history of the newspaper. Miss Spaulding began a leave of absence from advising high school publications in June of 1986 to pursue other interests in the field of journalism.

Department celebrates 15th anniversary

As January of 1986 approached, the family of Eisenhower High School celebrated 15 years of existence. Like the mystical town of Brigadoon, it would appear and disappear, only to be brought back in the minds and hearts of those who taught within it or attended it. The 1985-86 school year brought the news that Eisenhower would be closed within two years, its name dissolved and its traditions kept alive only in the thoughts of its alumni and staff and on the pages of the written word left by its publications.

The Publications Department of Eisenhower, housing the yearbook, Introspectus, and the monthly newspaper, The Word, has been a big part of Eisenhower's history. For 15 years staff members of both publications have chronicled the pulse of this innovative school.

The yearbook staff kept a pictorial history of the school from 1971 through 1986 noting at each publishing that this was the best year or the most special of times. No staff member ever believed that his or her yearbook would be old-fashioned or snickered at by future Eisenhower classes. But the 1986 staff found the long-haired life in the 70's differed greatly from the styles and issues faced by the students of the 80's. Students and faculty portraits, sports teams, photos of classes and projects, stories about issues and changes were a part of this carefully preserved history created by yearbook staffers.

Members of The Word staff found that although photos were important, the written portion of publication was the major concern of publishing. Through its 15 year history The Word has been an influential force in shaping school policies. Studen staffers found that editorials could change these policies, move administrators to action and fire up groups to "protest."

A supportive administrative staff of principals Chappy Marvin, Allan Larsen, and Doug Doane allowed the Word's adviser and staffers to pursue issues of interest to the times. Controversial topics of right to life, teenage pregnancy, drug addiction, and child abuse were featured in the monthly magazine.

Both The Word and Introspectus were members of Quill and Scroll, the National Scholastic Press Association, and the Michigan Interscholastic Press Association. Staff members competed in writing, layout and design, and photography categories for awards within these honoraries.

With only two years remaining in the proposed life of Eisenhower High School, the importance of maintaining a strong Publications Department remains evident. Future curriculum committees must realize this importance and see that classes within this department are treated to the credits necessary to keep a high caliber of writing and composing.

For 13 of the 14 years I have taught at Eisenhower High School, these publications have been a big part of my life. Advising both publications has been both a privilege and an honor.

There is nothing more important in learning than a student's right to read, react, and write about issues or record the events of the times. This honored tradition must continue to guarantee students the right to chronicle this special time in their lives.

The Commanders Varsity Baseball Team swept the Generals of MacArthur 3-0 and 9-8. In the first of two games, senior, fireballer, Bill Krupka hurled a three hit shutout, while setting ten down on strikes. In the second game, which went into extra innings, sophomore Matt Maturen connected for a bases loaded double to keep Eisenhower in the game. As a result, Eisenhower hung on to win 9-8.

Leading the team to a 13 and 14 overall record were ace pitcher Bill Krupka and centerfielder Willie Hale. Krupka was the winningest pitcher on the team, while Hale commanded the team in batting with a .442 average and tied Dave Lagalo with five homeruns. Their respectable 5 and 5 record in the White Pine Conference was good enough to earn them third place.

Taking all things into consideration, coach "Bear" Dulak was pleased with the team's performance. "We did very well for having such a young and inexperienced team. On top of that, we lost our starting catcher early in the season and had only four to five seniors that started. I will be looking for a strong team next year."

A very agressive Shelly Heney was chosen to represent Eisenhower on the All-Conference 1st team. Players including seniors Lisa Fredrickson, Gretle Corry, Cheryl Reetz, and Denise Brown achieved 2nd team status.

Talent Proves Successful for Girls

Shinsplints, blisters, and pulled muscles paid off for the Girls Track Team as they won three, lost three, and tied one, putting forth a strong season with coach Jim Noble.

Placing fourth at the Flushing Invitational and fifth in the White Pine Conference, the team gained strength toward the close of the season. The team's best hurler with a 39 ft. in shotput and a 105 ft. in discus was Senior Kim Lewandowski. Best sprinter was sophomore Kristy Misekow. Qualifying for state competition were Seniors Kim Lewandowski and Pam Seiferlein.

Starting the season early, the Freshman Football Team had many hours of intense training for the strenuous season ahead of them. Directing these tiresome practices was head coach Glenn Call and assistant coach Mike Jones. When the practices got more extreme, the Freshman Football Team was fired-up for their first game against Cadillac. Their excitement soon turned to depression as the game was cancelled because of foul weather.

The following week, the team was ready to take on Pinconning. This, being their first game of high school football, was a very exciting game. The team gave Pinconning a fight but came up one point shy of tying. The game ended 14-13, in favor of Pinconning.

Later in the season, the determined team came through and beat Montrose 29-6. Coming through for the team were: Matt Kubiak, who made a touchdown from an interception; Mike Beyer, adding another six points; and Marc Thomas putting a final thirteen points on the scoreboard.

The Freshman Football Team ended the long exhausting season with a record of 1-8. Leading the team throughout the season rushing was Marc Thomas. Chris Kubczak and Chris Himmelein led the team with a great number of tackles.

Coach Call thought his team did a commendable job for the 1985 season. "They worked hard and accomplished a lot, mainly experience."

Size didn't count as much as performance. Perform is exactly what the Junior Varsity Football Team did as they finished with a dead even record of 4 wins 4 losses and 1 tie.

Team emphasis is what returning Coach Jim Rummler and 2nd year Assistant Coach Jim Bowen preached. All through the season the pressure was not on any one player but everyone.

The saying "there's strength in numbers" wasn't true with this JV Team. If it were up to Eisenhower's JV Gridders to "Own Center Road" it would as they defeated MacArthur in a close rival match-up 14-7.

Although "work as a team" is what the coaches said all through the season, Sophomore Marc Rummler took matters into his own hands. Only playing in 5½ games he was on his way to a "Blue Chip" season until he suffered a broken left arm during the Buena Vista game. He carried the ball 50 times for a total of 319 yards. With just 6 receptions he tacked up 135 yards.

A.J. Fisher led the team in receptions with 15 catches for a leading 248 yards, which gave him an average of 16.73 yards for each reception.

One of the many great interceptions made by Matt Hubbard this season.

Practice began as usual in mid-August with the returning head coach Lew Fenton and line coach Joe Mikolajczak. Taking over Vito Tutera's position of assistant coach was a former Commander All-Stater Brian Krys.

Proudly the Commanders finished with a 4-5 record. Being able to hold down the number 1 team MacArthur and the number 2 team Nouvel Catholic Central until the third and fourth quarters. Coach Fenton stated, "That most games were decided in the second half."

The MacArthur game was a tight squeeze for the Generals. Although raining throughout the second half the Commanders tough defense hung in there, but unfortunately lost the battle for Center Road with a final score of 0-11. Coach Fenton stated that "The team's strength this year was in the defense."

The Commanders also had a successful Homecoming game against Buena Vista with a final of 14-7. The plan for that game was to load the defense with players who had usually held down the bench.

Individual ability was displayed throughout the season with Ross Bitterling being the leading scorer and leading rusher averaging 4.0 yards per carry. Ross was also named the most valuable back. Mark Riedel was named most valuable lineman, and Dave Douglas was named most improved.

Captains for the 1985-86 Commanders were Mark Gendregske and Brett Maddox.

Behind the strength of three captains, the girls swim team finished the season with a respectable five wins, seven losses, and one tie record. The captains, Jenny Larsen, Nikki Kelsey, and Renee Clark all helped the team to attain their personal goals.

Before competing in state competition, each girl had to meet certain time limits. They were then able to move on to state competition. "Everyone had their individual goals. We all worked hard together and still had fun. It's all part of being a team," as stated by senior Renee Clark.

The team attended the Tri-City Championship on November ninth, at Midland Dow. Ike took fifth place out of ten teams. Nikki Kelsey took first place in diving while Michelle Lamanna took second. With these finishes, they both qualified for the All-American Status award. This meant that they were able to compete in the diving regionals which took place on December fourth. These regionals were held in Clawson, Michigan. Nikki Kelsey pulled through with a fifth place while Michelle Lamanna placed thirteenth.

The Commanders defeated Midland Dow, 106-61, on the strength of nine first places including a one-two-three sweep in the 50-yard freestyle. Jenny Larsen keyed the sweep with a first place time of 28.1 seconds while Lori Vantol and Renee Clark finished second and third respectively.

Eisenhower Girls Varsity Tennis Team had one of their best years yet, by placing Second in the White Pine Conference. Honorable Mention was presented to Seniors Jill Barber, Elaine Bermudez, and Freshman Lekha Karu by the conference convocation. Jill Barber and Patty Rossiter were first place winners over MacArthur in number one doubles.

In Regional competition, the team placed fourth overall. Coach Jim Teal said, "My girls played very well with nearly everyone getting to the semi-finals. If we would have won one more key match we would have tied for second place and qualified for state."

The Varsity Team had a record of 8 wins and 6 losses for the year. As the season wound down the Most Valuable Player Award was presented to Jill Barber and Patty Rossiter and the Most Improved Player Award was presented to Kim Stankiewicz.

Having twenty-five players on the Junior Varsity Tennis Team was more than enough for Coach Bill Stocker. Because the team had so many players, the line-up never stayed consistent. Everybody had the opportunity to play in a match or in an exhibition game. Coach Stocker spent extra time giving individual assistance to each player.

The Most Valuable Player Trophy was awarded to Babs Byrne with 13 points and the Most Improved Player Trophy was presented to Helen Park with 10 points. The J.V. Tennis Team ended their season with a 3-4-1 record.

For the first time since 1977, the Varsity Golf Team was crowned White Pine Conference champs. With medalist Lindsay Wright leading the way with an 83, Mike Anderson and Todd Mattingly also supported the cause by carding identical 88's. John Scnepf, junior, rounded out the scoring with a 90.

Behind the dynamic duo of Anderson and Wright, the team dominated over 15 other class B teams at the regionals. Carrying a fine 11-1 record into the state finals, the team placed 11th in the state with a score of 329. This score was a meager 13 strokes off the pace of the first place team. At state, Anderson shot a spectacular 75, which was good enough to earn him 3rd in the state. Following Anderson for the Commanders were, John Schnepf with a fine 82, Lindsay Wright with an 85, and Todd Mattingly chipped in with an 87. With this finish, Coach Jim Benjamin said, "I expect bigger and better things next year."

The J.V. team also had a respectable year, finishing with an 8-3 record. This ties the best finish for the team in school history. Freshman Brian Dice led the way, by claiming the title of medalist five times. He also carded the low actual score for nine, with a 36. Mr. John Karam, coach of the J.V. team expects another strong season next year.

A Pace Set For Victory

Strained muscles, shin splints, and deep breaths helped the 1985 Cross-Country team have a very successful season. With the return of six seniors and some good runners it seemed to be just what they needed.

The best times for the 5000 meter courses were Steve Bowers 17:22, Wayne King 17:36 and Steve Carter 18:03.

In the White Pine Conference, the team finished their season with a perfect 4-0 mark and won the conference meet by 11 points over the defending champion Mt. Pleasant. Overall they finished with a 10-3 win-loss record, in dual and triangular meet competition. In all competitions they finished with a win-loss record of 50-49 including the regional competition.

Steve Bowers' 10th place finish earned him second team All-County honors in the Saginaw County meet with Wayne King not far behind.

Hudson Mills Metropark was the sight for the State Cross-Country Finals. Due to his fourteenth finish in the Regional meet the weekend before, Steve Bowers was the single Eisenhower participant in the meet. Steve wasn't alone in his battle. Andy Johnson, Dennis LaClair, Bill Lucas, Eric Martinson, and Wayne King also made the trip to give him moral support. It was a special honor for Steve to represent Eisenhower in such a race.

Going from near bottom of the conference to the top in one year made it a very interesting year for the Eisenhower Cross-Country Team.

SOCCER

Strategy and reliable talent took Varsity Soccer to Semi-finals

"The nicest gentlemen and the best team Eisenhower has ever had" were the proud words varsity soccer coach William Hartle said with a smile.

Possessing dependable talent in both offense and defense, along with the perfection of strategic tactics helped in the scoring of seventy-eight goals or 3.9 goals per game. The team concluded their season with a 14-5-1 record.

Being able to move the ball well aided in the players ability to work well together. Another attribute to the team's success was the remarkable performances from the goalies. David Bry had 5 shutout games with only 8 goals passing by him throughout the season. Sophomore Jeff Riedel had 2 shutout games. Rod Bitterling was also an outstanding player who was instrumental in the team's concept.

Highlights of the season were the beating of MacArthur 4 to 1 and getting a chance to go to state competition.

Ending the season with a semiformal banquet, many awards were distributed. Nathan Blecke was the recipient of the sportsmanship award while Bob Ross was most improved. John Ruth was honored the best defensive player and Matt Maturen earned the best offensive player and also held the title of top scorer.

Finishing third in the state was the reward of a tough season that was sure to go down in Eisenhower's history.

Proving their winning spirit and ability the Eisenhower J.V. Soccer team wrapped up their season with 8 wins out of 9 games. Grand Blanc was the only team to defeat them with a score of 2 to 1.

Strenuous ninety minute practices were held everyday which strengthened the team's confidence and teamwork throughout the season. They claimed victory with the total of thirty-nine winning scored goals with Dave McAuley and Mike Zielgmann sharing the titles of top scorers. Doug Leonard was awarded most valuable player and Larry Lafry received most improved.

The team was coached by Mr. Normal Jones. Although this was Jones' first year with Eisenhower, he has had 7 years of coaching experience. Jones praised the team by saying, "I really had some talented athletes and they were certainly an enthusi-

Soaring off to a good season, Ike's Freshmen Girls' Basketball Team took command over the MacArthur Generals defeating them 37 to 15, catching a 9-10 record for the year.

Eight accurate shooters, all fast on their feet, compiled this years girls' Freshmen Basketball Team. Working together, under the guidance of Coach Diane Forester, the dedicated team learned new offensive and defensive plays. These plays helped them achieve a successful season.

Execution was the key to victory.

Executing their offense to benefit from the whole team was one of the key factors to the Junior Varsity Basketball team's success. During the 1985 season it was normal to have 4 or 5 girls all scoring 8 to 12 points a game because of the fact that they worked as a team.

Although it was hard for first year coach Vicki LeBlanc to provide everyone with equal playing time, everyone did get into 90% or more of the games.

There were four freshmen who found great amounts of playing time during the 1985 season, but it was the sophomores who were consistent in all of the scoring and came through in key situations.

To put together a good season the team had to practice long and hard. During practice the team worked on their man to man defense along with several of their offensive plays. The 1985 team had an abundance of talent and improved even more with each practice and game.

Although everyone on the team showed improvement the most improved player on the team was freshman Colleen Gilleylen. "Colleen worked very hard at practice to improve on her skills." said teammate Wendy Iammurri.

Coach Vicki LeBlanc said "although the team lacked experience, they showed more control and confidence as the season progressed."

Even though the Girls' Varsity Basketball Team had their ups and downs, they thought being a team was the biggest asset of the season.

Varsity girls put in many long, hard practices to prep themselves for their upcoming games. These practices paid off in their overtime victory over Bridgeport. Kristen Snyder swished two points in the last seconds of the game to capture the win.

The most valuable player was Kathy Jacobi; most improved player was Molly Ward and the most energetic was Tracy LeBlanc. Top scorer of the season was Kim Seiferlein.

The girls enjoyed a night out together every once in a while. In November, coach Jim Noble invited the team over for pizza and a pep talk before they attended district competition, where they competed against Garber.

Although the team was not victorious in the district competition, the tournament proved to be a valuable experience.

Leading off with four straight victories helped the grapplers establish an impressive record for the season. Dominated by freshmen, and faced with tough competition, the wrestlers walked away with a 10-4 record at season's end.

The younger teammates seemed to be a key factor in the team's success. "We combined forces and provided an excellent mix of talent between the seniors and the freshmen," stated captain Mark Riedel. The group agrees that "the freshmen were really great."

Coach Doug Owenby's wrestlers placed second in the White Pine Conference, an achievement the team could be proud of. Four members were named to the Saginaw County 2nd team including Seniors Mark Riedel and Brad Balderstone, Sophomore Jeff Riedel, and Freshmen Ted Kurtz. Greg Weiler also a freshman, was named to the Saginaw County 3rd team. Both Riedels, Kurtz, and Senior Roger Nickel qualified for Regional competition, which was held in Millington.

Behind the skills of their speedy center, Steve Ciezlak, the team finished the season with a fine 10-1-1 record in the league. Although the overall record was 14-8-1 this team was a force to be reckoned with.

After a season opening loss to rival MacArthur, the team reeled off 10 victories and 1 tie. This was enough, as Nouvel finished 6-5-1. For the first time in Eisenhower's history, The Hockey Team claimed first place.

In the regionals, Ike drew MacArthur for the first game. With Ciezlak leading the way with 4 goals, and Freshman Bob Vargas with two, MacArthur was no match losing by two 6-4. Playing the Soo in the finals, the team was just overpowered by the strong team from the north 11-1.

Ciezlak won the league scoring crown with 36 goals and 13 assists. Coach Dave Michaelson said, "He's the finest player to come out of this league."

Led by two sophomore captains, the Junior Varsity Volleyball team finished the season with a 15 and 24 mark overall.

Starting the season off with a tournament held at Bay City Garber helped prepare the team for their tough season. The team went 1 and 3 for the day but earned the respect of many teams.

Serving was the key to success in the 1986 season, Wendy Iaamurri was the leading server she finished with 32 aces, 122 good, and 18 bad serves. Wendy was also voted the teams most valuable player.

Captain Lisa Schultz led the spiking column with 14 aces, 28 goof, and only 13 bad spikes. "Lisa is a strong player at the net," commented teammate Tammy Anderson.

Captain Kim Tobin had the most sets for the season with a total of 144.

This year's most improved player was Tracy Schramke. "Tracy worked hard to become a better player and it payed off." said first year coach Chris Birtie.

The highlight of the season came in the laker tournament, when the team advanced to the playoffs and put up a strong fight in the semifinals.

With a great deal of talent and hardwork the IKE Varsity Volleyball Team had a very successful season. The Commanders had an overall win-loss record of 23 wins and 7 losses. Leading the team were co-captains Paula Klerekoper and Jill Barber.

One highlight of the season for the Commanders was snapping a 79-0 streak from Midland Dow. The Varsity spiked their way to the White Pine Conference Championship with an impressive 9 and 1 record. The girls ended their season by reaching the district semi-finals. The team recognized outstanding play by awarding honors to individuals Paula Klereloper, Jill Barber, Tara Schultz and Melanie Erway. Paula earned the Most Valuable Player, the outstanding spikers and the outstanding blocker awards. Tara was recognized as the outstanding setter and server for the Commanders. Jill earned the outstanding defensive passer and player award, while Melanie was voted most improved.

The girls agreed the parental support, team work, excellent coaching and pure dedication led their team through a victorous season.

Poise is a quality that most freshmen basketball squads lack, the Eisenhower B team was an exception. The team kept themselves under control on many occasions, for example by defeating Nouvel by one point after being down by 10 points at 1 minute and 50 seconds to go in the last quarter.

Guard Matt Kubiak and center Chris Kubczak poured in an average of 9 and 8 points a game, respectively. Brian Stankiewicz averaged 5 points and 5 assists per game while Dave Stadnika pulled down 6 rebounds and scored 6 points a game. Not only were the starting five capable of putting points on the board, but the bench as well. The bench was not, by any means, a weak point with guards Steve Lord and B.J. Lambkin combining for 5 points and dishing out 4 assists.

The results of such a well balanced team were not at all surprising as the team ended the season with a 14-2 record overall. Their 8-2 conference record was good enough to earn them second place in the White Pine Conference.

The A team did not fare quite as well, they finished the season 4-15. They were coached by Jim Noble.

With predominantly a young team, Coach Terry Boswell formed a contender out of the young squad. Finishing 14-8 overall, and 6-4 in the league, the team placed third in the White Pine Conference. The Commanders were led by 6'7" junior, John Wilson in the domination over non-league foe. Wilson averaged 14.3 points a game, junior Phil Brefka 12.6, and spunky Ross Bitterling chipped in 9.2.

When the team was down, they would look to the bench for help and that help was usually Ron Austin, Tim Gilleylen, and Matt Hirschenberger. Austin averaged 5.3 points a game and forwards Gilleylen and Hirschenberger combined for 10 points and 6 rebounds per game. This proved to be true throughout the season, the bench sparked the team. Lindsay Wright proved he deserved a starting position at guard by averaging 8 points a game.

Dribbling into regional play, the teams first opponent was rival MacArthur, who was disposed of 71.67. The next team they faced was Buena Vista, the league champs, the result was a win for B.V. 65-49.

What was the key to being fashionable? It was not wearing expensive clothes or looking like everyone else at school. Having style meant feeling good about yourself in whatever you wore. Everyone expressed their individuality in some way, personality was reflected in many styles for the 1985-86 fashion season.

Bold new colors, plaids, paisley, multicolored denium, florals and tapestry were standouts among the Eisenhower student body. Thick knit sweaters were worn with variation and comfort in mind. Stretchy stir-up pants and yoke pants were as comfortable as sweat pants and versitale under skirts and dresses. Girls could easily dress them up or could have the casual look.

Large broaches, hairclips, colorful socks, textured nylons, gold necklaces, stylish watches and big bold earrings were just a few items that really topped off a great outfit.

On the scene in the guys department of fashion were new fads like "bleach look" jeans, long dark overcoats and pull over jackets.

These were the current looks for this season, comfort and big baggie expressive clothes.

Dancing to the music of local D.J.'s proved to be a popular weekend activity at Ike. The administration sponsored several dances after football and basketball games, all of which were well attended.

Special dances of the year charted attendance. The Homecoming dance proved to be a magical night as the Student Center was decorated in clouds and balloons to fit the theme "Forever" by Kenny Loggins. Prom was presented in May at the Delta College Commons and Courtyard. Chosen as the theme was "Stairway to Heaven," a favorite song by Led Zepplin.

Another "special" dance of the year occured after a victory over MacAurther. The crowning of Rusty Ortiz at the annual Commander Court dance proved to be the culmination to an exciting evening.

On weekends when school dances weren't available, many students chose to go dancing at a new teen night spot called "The Den." Many also opted to attend private dances at The Knights of Columbus and Pulaski Halls.

To celebrate the end of the school year, the pom pon squads joined forces to present the 4th annual Beach Blast. Students came in their beachwear and danced to popular summer songs including classic surf tunes.

Spirit days promote unity

The 1985-86 school year provided students with special days to show their spirit. These special days were planned to promote unity and give everyone a chance to participate.

MacArthur Week became a favorite of many students. The first MacArthur Week was held in October. It consisted of Ft. Lauderdale Day, 50's and 60's Day, and Jersey/Green and White Day. The second MacArthur week was held in February and consisted of Hat and Shades Day, Hawaiian Day, and Green and White Day. These days built excitement before competition against rival Douglas MacArthur.

Another favorite was Spook and Spirit Day sponsored by Forum. The day was filled with special events such as apple bobbing contests, pizza auctions, pie throwing contests, and costume contests.

Christmas Spirit Week was held one week prior to Christmas vacation and saw people in goofy hats, college sweatshirts, semi-formal wear, and green and red. To cap off the week, the Pom Pon squad sold green and red carnations with messages.

Foreign Language Week was held in April, giving everyone the chance to try foreign foods and experience international cultures, during the Foreign Language Food Fest. Foreign Language Students concluded the week by attending the Foreign Language Seminar at Central Michigan University.

Spring Fever Week was held in April. Students sent flowers to one another and were able to take part in "Computer Fun," a program in which a computer listed the 10 classmates with whom a student was most compatible.

Through days such as these, students were joined together to promote unity and spirit. They provided everyone with the chance to join in and have fun.

Congratulations to the Class of 1986

It's Teamwork That Counts

Whether you are on the football field, the ball diamond or in an operating room, teamwork makes the difference. At St. Mary's Hospital our staff members work as a team to provide the very best health care services possible. Think about it. A ball team wins when the players work together. A patient wins when the hospital staff combine their efforts in providing care.

Teamwork. At St. Mary's Hospital, it is "just what the doctor ordered."
